Today's Readings

The First Reading: Isaiah 64:1-9

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence--as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil--to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence! When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. Yet, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord, and do not remember iniquity forever. Now consider, we are all your people.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind-- just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you-- so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Welcome to Christ Episcopal Church: We are happy to welcome you to our church and worship services. Here are some things that you may find helpful. If you would like to know more about us there are cards that you can fill out hanging in each pew. Please hand your completed card to an usher as you leave today. Please join us after the service in our Fellowship Hall (down the stairs near the front of the church and on your right at the bottom of the stairs) to get to know us better. The most readily accessible restroom is through the door near the front of the sanctuary. Once you go through that door turn right; the restroom is across from the elevator. Parking is available for free on the street on Sundays and in the M&T parking lot behind the church on the corner of Washington Street and Madison Ave.

The Gospel: Mark 13:24-37

Jesus said, "In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven. "From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake."

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: In joyful expectation of his coming to our aid let us pray to our Advent Lord, saying, Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Come to your Church as Lord and judge. We pray for Bryce, our rector, Kevin, our bishop, Michael, our presiding bishop, Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, The Church of North India (United) and Good Shepherd, Milford. Help us to live in the light of your coming and give us a longing for your kingdom. We also pray for those celebrating this week, Nicole Lundy and Donna Katzaman. Maranatha: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Come to your world as King of the nations. We pray for the leaders of the nations and for peace in this world, especially in the Holy Land and Ukraine. Before you rulers will stand in silence. Maranatha: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Come to the suffering as Saviour and comforter. We pray for (...). Break into our lives, where we struggle with sickness and distress, and set us free to serve you for ever. Maranatha: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Come to us as shepherd and guardian of our souls. We remember Cynthia and Louis Thun. Give us with all the faithful departed a share in your victory over evil and death. Maranatha: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Come from heaven, Lord Jesus, with power and great glory. Lift us up to meet you, that with Blessed Mary and all your saints and angels we may live and reign with you in your new creation. Maranatha: Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Celebrant: Come, Lord Jesus, do not delay; give new courage to your people, who trust in your love. By your coming, raise us to share in the joy of your kingdom on earth as in heaven, where you live and reign with the Father and the Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock;
shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.

In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up your strength and come to help us.

Restore us, O God of hosts;
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

O Lord God of hosts,
how long will you be angered
despite the prayers of your people?

You have fed them with the bread of tears;
you have given them bowls of tears to drink.

You have made us the derision of our neighbors,
and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

Restore us, O God of hosts;
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, the son of man you have made so strong for yourself.

The Lighting of the Advent Wreath

Leader: Restore us, O God of hosts; show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

People: Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, the son of man you have made so strong for yourself.

Leader: As we begin this season of Advent, we remember and give thanks for all of those who have heard God's word of promise throughout the ages and we rejoice that they had the faith and trust to believe those promises and to walk in the ways of righteousness. May we continue to hear God's promises today and may we be granted the same faith and trust to listen and follow in the paths that God has destined for us. We light this first candle as a symbol of our desire to hear and trust God's great promises to this world.

The first candle is lit on the Advent Wreath

Leader: Let us pray: Almighty God, as we rejoice in your Son's first advent, so we await with eager expectation the fulfillment of his promise that he will come among us again. Strengthen us in our faith, that we may know his presence with us now, as we wait, and fashion our souls to be places where his coming grace and mercy will find a home, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Announcements and Children's Message

The Offertory Anthem Hark, a Thrilling Voice is Sounding Eric Thiman

Hark! A thrilling voice is sounding; "Christ is nigh," it seems to say; "Cast away the dreams of darkness, O ye children of the day!" Wakened by the solemn warning, Let the earthbound soul arise; Christ, her sun all ill dispelling, Shines upon the morning skies. Lo! The Lamb so long expected, Comes with pardon down from Heaven; Let us haste, with tears of sorrow, One and all to be forgiven; That when next He comes in glory, And the world is wraped in fear, With his mercy He may shield us, And with words of love draw near. Christ to Thee be endless glory, From all men on earth be praise, Who from heaven wilt come to save us, And redeem from sinful ways. Honour. glory, might, and blessing To the Father and the Son, With the Everlasting Spirit, While eternal ages run. Amen

Presentation Hymn 54 Savior of the nations come (vs 1)

Savior of the nations come!

Virgin's Son, make here your home.

Marvel now, both heaven and earth,
that the Lord chose such a birth.

In him no sin is found, we stand on ho - ly ground.

Be still, for the pre-sence of the Lord, the Ho - ly One, is here.

2. Be still, for the glory of the Lord is shining all around;
 he burns with holy fire, with splendour he is crowned.
 How awesome is the sight, our radiant King of light!
 Be still, for the glory of the Lord is shining all around.

3. Be still, for the power of the Lord is moving in this place;
 he comes to cleanse and heal, to minister his grace.
 No work too hard for him, in faith receive from him.
 Be still, for the power of the Lord is moving in this place.

A Contemplative Advent: Using a selection of meditations from Richard Rohr's Center for Action and Contemplation, we will be exploring key Advent themes and what they can mean for our lives of faith. This coming week we are looking at the theme of Judgment and Apocalyptic language used in Scripture. All you need to do is email Fr Bryce @brycepwandrey@gmail.com for a pdf version of these meditations or pick up copies off the table near the Orrick Door and join us on Wednesdays (Dec 6, 13 & 20) at 10:30AM. On Sunday December 10th, we will have two special focuses in our 10am service. First, we will be celebrating our Daughters of the King as they renew their vows. Secondly, we will be remembering, honoring and celebrating the life of Donald Thomas Burns, MD. Donald, who died on October 29, was a long time member of Christ Church. His family, who will be joining us, decided that instead of a funeral service they would like to dedicate that service in Donald's memory.

On December 17th, during our Children's Message time at the 10am service, we will be celebrating our first ever Christingle! What is Christingle? The idea of Christingles came from a Moravian Church in Germany in 1747. They involve an orange, a candle, a ribbon and candy! Be sure to be with us on the 17th to learn about the symbolism of the Christingle (and all children will receive a bag to make their own at home).
