Today's Readings

The First Reading: Zephaniah 1:7,12-18

Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is at hand; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests. At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the people who rest complacently on their dregs, those who say in their hearts, "The LORD will not do good, nor will he do harm." Their wealth shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them. The great day of the LORD is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter, the warrior cries aloud there. That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements. I will bring such distress upon people that they shall walk like the blind; because they have sinned against the LORD, their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath; in the fire of his passion the whole earth shall be consumed; for a full, a terrible end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

The Epistle: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

The Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus said, "It is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

Welcome to Christ Episcopal Church: We are happy to welcome you to our church and worship services. Here are some things that you may find helpful. If you would like to know more about us there are cards that you can fill out hanging in each pew. Please hand your completed card to an usher as you leave today. Please join us after the service in our Fellowship Hall (down the stairs near the front of the church and on your right at the bottom of the stairs) to get to know us better. The most readily accessible restroom is through the door near the front of the sanctuary. Once you go through that door turn right; the restroom is across from the elevator. Parking is available for free on the street on Sundays and in the M&T parking lot behind the church on the corner of Washington Street and Madison Ave.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: Gather us together, O God, that we might share the prayers, intentions, and thanksgivings of our community. We are generous with our gifts Because we are Rooted in Abundance.

I ask your prayers for the Church, for all who worship God this day. For Fr Bryce, Kevin our Bishop, Michael our presiding bishop, Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, The Church of the Province of Myanmar (Burma) and Church of the Redeemer, Sayre. We pray especially for this season in which we celebrate our stories of leadership and our support for mission. We are generous with our gifts of leadership, Because we are Rooted in Abundance.

I ask your prayers for our Nation and all nations; for refugees fleeing climate change and war; for conflicts of resources and land; for lawmakers and peacekeepers. We pray for a distribution of wealth that helps the poor and the marginalized. We especially pray for peace in the Holy Land and Ukraine. We are generous with our gifts of peace, Because we are Rooted in Abundance.

I ask your prayers for the sick, the lonely, the lost, and those who grieve. We remember those on our parish prayer list, and those we name now in silence or aloud. We are generous with our gifts of healing, Because we are Rooted in Abundance.

I ask your prayers for those who have died, those who are dying, and those who mourn. We especially remember today Mr. and Mrs. Matthias Roland, Mr. and Mrs. Solan Parkes and Luther and Dorothy Kunkle. We are generous with our gifts of support, Because we are Rooted in Abundance.

I ask for your remembrances of thanksgivings and blessings, for we are given time, talent, and treasure to share with the world. We pray especially for those celebrating this week: Sara Achenbach, Randall Fegley and Pam Young. We are generous with our gratitude, Because we are Rooted in Abundance.

Celebrant: God of Abundance, hear the prayers of your people. May we who are blessed by so much wealth and wisdom, share our works with a world in need, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 90: 1-8 (read responsively by whole verse)

Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth,
or the land and the earth were born,
from age to age you are God.

You turn us back to the dust and say,
"Go back, O child of earth."

For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past and like a watch in the night.

You sweep us away like a dream;
we fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green and flourishes;
in the evening it is dried up and withered.

For we consume away in your displeasure;
we are afraid because of your wrathful indignation.

Our iniquities you have set before you,
and our secret sins in the light of your countenance.

The Offertory Anthem Never Weather-Beaten Sail

Charles Wood

's weather-beaten sail more willing bent to shore, Never tired pilgrim's limbs affected slumber more: than my weary sprite now longs to fly out of my troubled breast. O come quickly dearest Lord and take my soul to rest! Ever blooming are the joys of Heaven's high paradise, Cold age not there our ears, nor vapour dims our eyes; glory there the sun outshines; whose beams the blessed only see. Oh come quickly glorious, Lord, and raise our sprite to thee!

Presentation Hymn 362 (vs 1) Holy, holy, holyy

All the Company of Heaven Championship is set! Our Final Four was an exciting round. After the first quarter of competition Mary Magdalene and Hildegard both held leads. At the half Francis still trailed only by two but Michael was hoping for an extended half-time show. At the end of the third quarter Francis had taken the lead by the slimmest of margins while Hildegard continued to punish Michael. Hildegard showed no mercy in the fourth quarter while Mary M turned the tables and surged to the win. Our final is set: Mary Magdalene takes on the lady from Bingen, Hildegard!

	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4	Final
Francis	3	2	5	2	12
Mary M	5	2	2	8	17
	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4	Final
Michael	1	1	1	2	5
