Today's Readings

The Old Testament Reading: Numbers 21:4-9

From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

The New Testament Reading: Ephesians 2:1-10

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ-- by grace you have been saved-- and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God-- not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

The Gospel Reading: John 3:14-21

Jesus said, "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

"Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

Welcome to Christ Episcopal Church

We are happy to welcome you to our church and worship services. Here are some things that you may find helpful. If you would like to know more about us there are cards that you can fill out hanging in each pew. Please hand your completed card to an usher as you leave today. Please join us after the service in our Fellowship Hall (down the stairs near the front of the church and on your right at the bottom of the stairs) to get to know us better. The most readily accessible restroom is through the door near the front of the sanctuary. Once you go through that door turn right; the restroom is across from the elevator. Parking is available for free on the street on Sundays and in the M&T parking lot behind the church on the corner of Washington Street and Madison Ave.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: With confidence and trust let us pray to our Lenten Lord, taking up our cross and saying, in your mercy hear us.

For the one holy catholic and apostolic Church, for Bryce, our rector, Kevin, our bishop, Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, The Episcopal Church and North Parish. Lord of compassion, in your mercy hear us.

For those preparing for baptism and confirmation throughout your church, and for their teachers and sponsors. Lord of compassion, in your mercy hear us.

For peace in the world, especially for the people of Ukraine and the Holy Land, that a spirit of respect and reconciliation may grow among nations and peoples. Lord of compassion, in your mercy hear us.

For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer, especially for those on our prayer list printed in the bulletin and for those we name aloud now...; for refugees, prisoners, and all in danger; that they may be relieved and protected. Lord of compassion, in your mercy hear us.

For grace to amend our lives and to further the reign of God, praying especially for those celebrating this week, Judy Sillhart, Morna Traffas, Andrea Griffith and Danny Hinnershitz. Lord of compassion, in your mercy hear us.

In communion with all those who have walked in the way of holiness, remembering the loved ones of Jack and Pricilla Hirschenhofer, Joan George and Marie Helwig. Lord of compassion, in your mercy hear us.

Celebrant: God our Father, in your love and goodness you have taught us to come close to you in penitence with prayer, fasting and generosity; accept our Lenten discipline, and when we fall by our weakness, raise us up by your unfailing mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Summary of the Law

Celebrant: Our Lord Jesus Christ said: The first commandment is this: 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22 (read responsively by whole verse)

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
and his mercy endures for ever.

Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.

He gathered them out of the lands;
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

Some were fools and took to rebellious ways;
they were afflicted because of their sins.

They abhorred all manner of food and drew near to death's door.

Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress.

He sent forth his word and healed them
and saved them from the grave.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy and the wonders he does for his children.

Let them offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving and tell of his acts with shouts of joy.

All: We do not presume to come to this your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Wanted: One Treasurer, Very Much Alive!

The Fall Festival of the Arts is looking for a volunteer to take over the duties of Treasurer which Alison Whalen has been diligently performing for YEARS. Job includes preparation of budgets, bookkeeping, reporting, keeping the bank account and check book, receiving and paying the bills, dealing with tickets and credit cards, depositing, tracking and acknowledging contributions.

Time commitment: monthly meetings. For much of the year, very little time needed. In the weeks leading up and during the Festival, things get busy – plan on several hours per week. Great chance to get to know and work with our friends at Trinity Lutheran and in the arts community. Contact Dail Richie at 610-223-9302 or dail.richie@comcast.net or in person.

We are now halfway through the United Thank Offering campaign. Are your boxes getting full? Don't have one? Need an envelope for your check? Boxes and envelopes are available in the large basket on the table in the nave. If donating by check, please make it payable to UTO. Boxes and envelopes are to be handed in by Palm Sunday, March 24.

These brothers are monks and contemplatives, embracing what is rich and central to the Christian faith. Through prayer, silence, and fellowship with people from many different cultures and Christian traditions, men and women have found in Taizé the presence of God offering them a new way and vision for the future. On Wednesday March 13th at 5:30pm we will be celebrating our first Taize service at Christ Church with the Holy Eucharist. David Cullen will be with us on guitar.
