Today's Readings

The First Reading: Acts 4: 32-35

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

The New Testament Reading: 1 John 1:1-2:2

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life-- this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us-- we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

The Gospel Reading: John 20:19-31

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Welcome to Christ Episcopal Church

We are happy to welcome you to our church and worship services. Here are some things that you may find helpful. If you would like to know more about us there are cards that you can fill out hanging in each pew. Please hand your completed card to an usher as you leave today. Please join us after the service in our Fellowship Hall (down the stairs near the front of the church and on your right at the bottom of the stairs) to get to know us better. The most readily accessible restroom is through the door near the front of the sanctuary. Once you go through that door turn right; the restroom is across from the elevator. Parking is available for free on the street on Sundays and in the M&T parking lot behind the church on the corner of Washington Street and Madison Ave.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: We pray to Jesus who is present with us to eternity, saying, in your mercy, hear us.

Intercessor: Jesus, light of the world, bring the light and peace of your gospel to the nations, we pray for Bryce, our rector, Kevin, our bishop, Michael, our presiding bishop, Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, Episcopal/Anglican Province of Alexandria, St. Gabriel's, Douglassville and St. George's, Hellertown; Jesus, Lord of life, in your mercy, hear us.

Jesus, bread of life, give food to the hungry, security to the unemployed and homeless, hope to all who are struggling and nourish us all with your word. Jesus, Lord of life, in your mercy, hear us.

Jesus, our way, our truth, our life, be with us and all who follow you in the way, especially for those who are celebrating this week: Isabel Alarcon, Hannah Alarcon, Polly Pflum, Joel Handy, Veronica Wilson, David and Pam Wheat. Deepen our appreciation of your truth and fill us with your life. Jesus, Lord of life, in your mercy, hear us.

Jesus, Good Shepherd who gave your life for the sheep, recover the straggler, bind up the injured, strengthen the sick and lead the healthy and strong to new pastures. We pray especially for those on our prayer list printed in the bulletin and any we name now...; Jesus, Lord of life, in your mercy, hear us.

Jesus, the resurrection and the life, we give you thanks for all who have lived and believed in you, remembering especially Mr. and Mrs. Matthias Roland and Mr. and Mrs. Solan Parkes. Raise us with them to eternal life. Jesus, Lord of life, in your mercy, hear us.

Celebrant: God of glory, by the raising of your Son you have broken the chains of death and destruction: fill your Church with faith and hope; for a new day has dawned and the way to life stands open in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Oh, how good and pleasant it is,
when brethren live together in unity!

It is like fine oil upon the head
that runs down upon the beard,

Upon the beard of Aaron,
and runs down upon the collar of his robe.

It is like the dew of Hermon that falls upon the hills of Zion.

For there the Lord has ordained the blessing:
life for evermore.

Announcements and Children's Message

The Offertory Anthem

Look at the World

John Rutter

Look at the world: Everything all around us us. Look at the world: and marvel everyday
Look at the world: So many joys and wonders
So many miracles along our way
Praise to thee o lord for all creation
Give us thankful hearts that we may see
All the gifts we share and every blessing
All things come of thee

Look at the earth: Bringing forth fruit
and flower
Look at the sky: The sunshine and the rain
Look at the hills, look at the trees and mountains
Valley and flowing river field and plain
Praise to thee o lord for all creation
Give us thankful hearts that we may see
All the gifts we share and every blessing
All things come of thee

Think of the spring, Think of the warmth of summer Bringing the harvest before the winters cold Everything grows,
everything has a season
Til' it is gathered to the fathers fold
Praise to thee o lord for all creation
Give us thankful hearts that we may see All the gifts we share and every blessing
All things come of thee

Every good gift, all that we need and cherish Comes from the lord
in token of his love We are his hands,
stewards of all his bounty
His is the earth and his the heavens above Praise to thee, o lord for all creation Give us thankful hearts that we may see All the gifts we share, and every blessing
All things come of thee; all things come of thee.

Presentation Hymn 174 (vs 1)

At the Lamb's high feast we sing, praise to our victorious King, who hath washed us in the tide, flowing from his piercèd side;
praise we him, whose love divine, gives his sacred Blood for wine, gives his Body for the feast, Christ the victim, Christ the priest.

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in 3/4 time. It begins with a whole rest for the cantor, followed by a melodic line for the lyrics. The piece concludes with a 'Fine' marking and a double bar line.

The Cantor sings the following verse and then all sing the Refrain again:
The bread which we break, Alleluia, Is the communion of the Body of Christ.

Music: Jack Warren Burnam (b. 1946). Copyright © 1986 Jack Warren Burnam.

The Invitation to Communion

Everyone is invited to receive. If you would prefer to receive a blessing please indicate this by crossing your arms while at the communion rail. There will be two chalices for receiving: the first to drink from and the second chalice is for intinction (dipping the host instead of drinking).

The Agnus Dei

mp

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world, grant us peace.

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It features a melodic line for the lyrics. The piece includes dynamic markings of mp (mezzo-piano) and concludes with a double bar line.

The Communion Hymn 304 I come with joy

If Eucharistic visitors are being sent forth today to take the sacrament to people at home, the following prayer is said after Communion:

Celebrant: In the name of God, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

All: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup. Amen.

The Post-Communion Prayers

The Celebrant first prays the following:

Lord God our Father, through our Saviour Jesus Christ you have assured your children of eternal life and in baptism have made us one with him: deliver us from the death of sin and raise us to new life in your love, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Then all pray together on page 365.

Adult Forum: This Sunday, in Adult Forum, we begin a new series on "Resurrection: Then and Now." We will be exploring the resurrection stories and philosophies of the New Testament to delve into what the resurrection of Jesus meant for the earliest Christian communities and what it still means for us today. Fr Bryce will be leading us in these sessions on April 7, 14, 21 and 28 at 9:05am in the Parlor. Please join us.

Alice Training

(Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacuate)

The Security Task Force will be holding an ALICE training session at the Church at 1:00 PM on Saturday May 18. The training session, which will be conducted by Navigate360, will last for approximately 4 hours and will include classroom instruction as well as various mock exercises involving the types of threats we might possibly encounter in the event that an intruder entered the Church. Light refreshments will be provided in the Parish Hall starting at 12:30 PM. <https://forms.gle/eDnMcVZmRdnuvjfR8>

Participation in the mock exercises is strictly voluntary. (You may come and simply observe if you wish!)

Gather 24 - May 4 at PNC Field (Moosic) - Registration on diobeth.org is now open for this annual formation event designed primarily for members of the lay order. Please help us encourage all to attend and consider attending yourself. This year we have 21 sessions for participants to choose from and are excited to be hosting Bishop Audrey with Bishop Kevin in a panel discussion during the day. Registration, schedule, session details, and more are available on the Gather 24 page (diobeth.org/gather24) on the diocesan website.

Christ Church Reading was featured in Partners for Sacred Places first National Convening in Philadelphia on April 4th and 5th. The National Convening brought together leaders from philanthropy, government, city planning and architecture, the arts, human services, academia, the media, and religion from across the U.S. to engage in a full day of conversation and strategizing. Christ Church is delighted to be recognized by Partners and asked to contribute to this important event. Fr Bryce and two representatives from Christ Church joined a panel discussion on April 5th after its video case study which was produced by Partners for Sacred Places was presented. You can watch the video today! <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zxOJ9WNZBns>
