Today's Readings

The First Reading: Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

The Epistle: Romans 8:22-27

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

The Gospel Reading: John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15

Jesus said to his disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. "I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned. "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Psalm 132:1-9 (read responsively by whole verse)

O Lord, how manifold are your works!

in wisdom you have made them all;

the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great.

There move the ships,

and there is that Leviathan,

which you have made for the sport of it.

All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.

You give it to them; they gather it;

you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

You hide your face, and they are terrified;

you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;

and so you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord endure for ever;

may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

He looks at the earth and it trembles;

he touches the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;

I will praise my God while I have my being.

May these words of mine please him;

I will rejoice in the Lord.

Bless the Lord, O my soul. Hallelujah!

Announcements and Children's Message

The Offertory Anthem Cantique de Jean Racine

Gabriel Fauré

Our sole hope of salvation,
Eternal light of the earth and the sky,
We kneel in adoration,
O Savior, turn on us Thy loving eye.

Send down on us the fire of Thy grace all consuming,
Whose wondrous might dispersed the powers of hell,
And rouse our slumbering souls with Thy radiance,
That they may waken Thy mercy to tell!

O Christ bestow Thy blessing on us, we implore Thee,
Who here are gathered on penitent knee.
Accept the hymns we chant to Thine eternal glory,
And these Thy gifts we return unto Thee!

Presentation Hymn Praise God from whom all blessings flow (Hymn 380, vs 3)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host:
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Last Sunday our Adult Forum focused on updating our work with Partners for Sacred Places. Over the past six months Rick Wolf, Pam Wheat, Chris Spohn, Jeff Morris, Ashleigh Hoelscher, and Fr Bryce along with representatives from Sacred Places and our local community have been meeting to discuss our Mission and Vision. Part of this process has resulted in a new Mission Statement for Christ Church. We presented this last Sunday and it will be considered by the Vestry for official approval over the coming months. Please find copies of this new statement on the table near the Orrick Door and on page 18 of this bulletin. Please talk to any of the team members with your thoughts and feedback.

Wednesday May 29th at 5:30pm will be our last Evening Eucharist with David Cullen for the first half of this year. We will be returning to the wonderful music of Bob Marley this evening. Please check the bulletins over the summer for upcoming Wednesday evening service dates and times.

Our Covenant Service with Trinity Lutheran was originally scheduled for June but, due to various issues, we are now looking at a date in early September for this service. It will be held at Trinity Lutheran while we will be hosting a Christmas Carol Concert in December. Stay tuned!

On Sunday June 2nd, at our 10am service, we will be celebrating our Episcopal Church Women (ECW) and the charities they support. Representatives from many of the charities will be on hand to receive their donation from our ECW. Please join us. After the service, there will be a luncheon and a fashion show you won't want to miss! All are welcome!

Today, Sunday May 19th, Bob Conklin from Muhlenberg Green Architects will be with us to present a report on The Facilities Assessment of Christ Church. Please join us at 9:05am in the Parlor.

Beginning on Sunday May, 26th we begin our first six-week Pilgrim Course. This is an innovative and inspiring program for people of all stages along the road of following Jesus. We will be exploring The Lord's Prayer by looking at each powerful line of this prayer, week by week. We meet in the Parlor from 9:05 to 9:45am and we will begin with "Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name." Please join us in this course for the Christian journey.

Gardeners Needed!

Do you have a passion for beautifying outdoor spaces? Do you want to encourage the neighborhood to share in the peace and beauty of Christ Church courtyard? Then, let your passion be your ministry! The courtyard has served the local community with decorations for the Advent, Christmas, Lenten, and Easter seasons. It is also a wonderful location for our neighbors who live and work in the area to enjoy a quiet moment during a busy day. Your gifts of time and talent can be used to make the courtyard inviting and welcoming. Please let Father Bryce or Chris Spohn know if you want to pursue this ministry. On June 1, from 9-11 we will meet (weather permitting) to plant, sand, paint and refurbish!

Junior and Senior EYC: Friday, May 24th 6-8pm. BOTH EYC groups will come together for a summer kickoff event! Hamburgers and hot dogs, lawn games, and more as we celebrate our accomplishments this school year and look forward to summer!

The Ascension and Pentecost Ode IX

Holy gift, surpassing comprehension!
Wond'rous mystery of each fiery tongue!
Christ made good His Promise in Ascension:
O'er the Twelve the cloven flames have hung!

Spake the Lord, or ere He left the Eleven:
"Here in Salem wait the Gift I send:
Till the Paraclete come down from Heaven:
Everlasting Guide and Guard and Friend."

O that shame, now ended in that glory!
Pain untold, now lost in joy unknown!
Tell it out with praise, the whole glad story,
Human nature at the Father's Throne!
