Today's Readings—Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost

The Old Testament Reading: Job 38:1-7, 34-41

The Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: "Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. "Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy? "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that a flood of waters may cover you? Can you send forth lightnings, so that they may go and say to you, 'Here we are'? Who has put wisdom in the inward parts, or given understanding to the mind? Who has the wisdom to number the clouds? Or who can tilt the waterskins of the heavens, when the dust runs into a mass and the clods cling together? "Can you hunt the prey for the lion, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, when they crouch in their dens, or lie in wait in their covert? Who provides for the raven its prey, when its young ones cry to God, and wander about for lack of food?"

The New Testament Reading: Hebrews 5:1-10

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"; as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

The Holy Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Welcome to Christ Church

We are happy to welcome you to our church and worship services. Here are some things that you may find helpful. If you would like to know more about us there are cards that you can fill out hanging in each pew. Please hand your completed card to an usher as you leave today. Please join us after the service in our Fellowship Hall (down the stairs near the front of the church and on your right at the bottom of the stairs) to get to know us better. The most readily accessible restroom is through the door near the front of the sanctuary. Once you go through that door turn right; the restroom is across from the elevator. Parking is available for free on the street on Sundays and in the M&T parking lot behind the church on the corner of Washington Street and Madison Ave.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: As we prepare to bring our gifts to the altar, let us raise our voices in prayer and praise, thanking God for the opportunity to walk in love together.

Intercessor: I ask your prayers for the Church, God's greatest gift to us. For all who worship and serve this day. For the wisdom and teaching of our bishops, priests, deacons, and laypeople. We pray for Fr Bryce, our rector, Kevin, our bishop, Michael, our presiding bishop, Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, Eglise Anglicane du Rwanda, and St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Mountain Top. As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

I bid your prayers for our Nation and for all nations; for all refugees, for an end to hostilities, for a spirit of Goodwill. We pray for our citizens as we elect leaders, and for leaders who serve with love. We pray for those who live in fear and danger, especially the people of Ukraine and the Middle East. As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

I ask your prayers for our neighbors, for the mission of our church and the ways we change the world with our gifts. We pray today for those celebrating this week: Frank Arguelles and Benjamin West. As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

I invite your prayers for those who are sick, who are isolated, who are in despair. We pray for caregivers and healers who care for those we love. Please pray for those on our parish prayer list, and who we name now either silently or aloud... As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

I ask your prayers for the dead and the dying, and for those who mourn, remembering Susan Kappenstein, General David McM.Gregg, Ellen F. Gregg and LeMaire Ross. As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

Celebrant: Hear the prayers of your people, O God, and inspire us with gratitude and abundance as we share our many gifts with You and the world You made, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 104:1-9, 25, 37b (The psalm is read responsively by whole verse)

Bless the Lord, O my soul;

O Lord my God, how excellent is your greatness!

you are clothed with majesty and splendor.

You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak and spread out the heavens like a curtain.

You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters above;

you make the clouds your chariot;

you ride on the wings of the wind.

You make the winds your messengers and flames of fire your servants.

You have set the earth upon its foundations,

so that it never shall move at any time.

You covered it with the Deep as with a mantle;
the waters stood higher than the mountains.

At your rebuke they fled;

at the voice of your thunder they hastened away.

They went up into the hills and down to the valleys beneath,
to the places you had appointed for them.

You set the limits that they should not pass;

they shall not again cover the earth.

O Lord, how manifold are your works!

in wisdom you have made them all;

the earth is full of your creatures.

Hallelujah!

Announcements, Stewardship Moment and Children’s Message

The Offertory Anthem I Will Serve the Lord All my Days

Don Besig

1. Each day I live
I will walk with the Lord
I will follow him wherever IHe may lead
He will take my hand
He will understand
His grace is all that I need

3. Alleluia, alleluia
My heart sings with glory and with praise
Alleluia, alleluia
I will serve the lord all my days

2. Each day I live
I will talk with the Lord
I will come to Him in worship and in prayer
He will hear my plea
He will comfort me
His love will always be there

4. Each day I live
I will sing to the Lord
I will lift my voice to glorify His name
Singing clear and strong
I will raise my song
His wonderous love, I’ll proclaim!

Presentation Hymn Praise God from whom all blessings flow (Hymn 380, vs 3)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host:
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The Christ Church children's choir will rehearse on Wednesday afternoons in the choir room from 3:15pm-4:15pm. Rehearsals will be in preparation for singing occasionally on Sunday mornings as well as during the holiday seasons, Christmas and Easter. Any child in elementary, middle, or high school is welcome to attend. Please pass the word to any families you may know who have children who may have an interest in singing. Those children who are currently singing in the children's choir but are unable to attend rehearsals on Wednesday after school, will continue to practice upcoming children's anthems in their Sunday school classes.

Fall Festival of the Arts 2024

A Few of My Favorite Things with Karen Eddinger

Sunday, November 3 | 4:00 PM Trinity Lutheran Church | 527 Washington

At the end of 2024, Trinity's Minister of Music, Karen Eddinger, will be retiring. She offers this musical gift, A Few of My Favorite Things, to express her gratitude to her congregation and the local music community for their support during her fifty years as a church musician.

ECW is again participating in the Friends helping Friends event at Boscovs. Please purchase a shopping pass for $5.00 from any ECW member and you will get a 25% discount on most items in the store (Restrictions apply.) This will be held on Tuesday, October 22 from 8AM-11PM. See any ECW member for a pass!

Our Thursday morning Bible Study continues at 9am in the Library. Prior attendance is not required; please join us.

Adult Forum today, Sunday, October 20, Father Bryce will be leading an All-Age Instructed Eucharist at 9AM in Room A2. Please join in as we wonder "What's Happening during the Eucharist?" Beginning on Sunday October 27th, we will be looking at the age-old problem of "A Good God in an Evil World." How can we believe in the goodness and love of God when we look around and see so much pain and hatred? For three weeks we will wrestle with this difficulty in ways that will help us keep hope and faith alive. Join us!

Our EYC (Episcopal Youth Community) is kicking off again on Saturday October 26th. All ages of our EYC (6 to 18 year olds) will be going to Mast Farms Fall Festival at 4pm. Please check with Milah Smith for the details. Our next two meetings are in November. On Friday November 8th our Senior EYC (ages 12-18) will meet at the church at 6pm. Then, on Friday November 22nd, our Junior EYC (ages 6-12) will meet at 6pm at the church. If you have any questions about EYC please speak to Milah (milahallison@gmail.com).

Our ESL Dinner and Conversation this past Tuesday was another wonderful example of our downtown community coming together for a common purpose. At least 55 people were in attendance in our Fellowship Hall for food and conversation. Thank you to everyone who came with food and made this evening a success. We will have another of these events in the first part of 2025.
