Today's Readings—All Saints' Sunday

The Old Testament Reading: Wisdom of Solomon 3:1-9

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

The New Testament Reading: Revelation 21:1-6a

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

The Holy Gospel: John 11:32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Welcome to Christ Church

We are happy to welcome you to our church and worship services. Here are some things that you may find helpful. If you would like to know more about us there are cards that you can fill out hanging in each pew. Please hand your completed card to an usher as you leave today. Please join us after the service in our Fellowship Hall (down the stairs near the front of the church and on your right at the bottom of the stairs) to get to know us better. The most readily accessible restroom is through the door near the front of the sanctuary. Once you go through that door turn right; the restroom is across from the elevator. Parking is available for free on the street on Sundays and in the M&T parking lot behind the church on the corner of Washington Street and Madison Ave.

Bless Fr Bryce, our rector, Kevin, our bishop, Sean, our presiding bishop, Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, The Diocese of Karongi – Eglise, Anglicane du Rwanda, St. Paul's, Troy and all ministers of your Church, that by faithful proclamation of your word we may be built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets into a holy temple in the Lord. Give to the world and its peoples the peace that comes from above, that they may find Christ's way of freedom and life; we pray for anyone living in fear and danger, especially the people of Ukraine and the Middle East; we also pray for our nation as we vote this week; Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Hold in your embrace all who witness to your love in the service of the poor and needy; all who minister to the sick and dying; and all who bring light to those in darkness; especially those on our prayer list printed in the bulletin and any that we name now..., Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Remember in your mercy all those gone before us who have been well-pleasing to you from eternity; especially Russell W. Riddell, Iva A. Riddell, Immaculata Russo, Dale Shelly, Rev and Mrs. Emmert M. The Offertory Anthem Lo, round the throne a glorious band arr. Henry G. Ley

Lo, round the throne, a glorious band, the saints in countless myriads stand,
Of ev'ry tongue redeemed of God, arrayed in garments wash'd in blood. Hallelujah!

Through tribulation great they came: the bore the cross, despised the shame:
From all their labours now they rest, in God's eternal glory blest. Hallelujah!
They see their Saviour face to face, and sing the triumphs of his grace:
Him day and night they ceaseless praise, to him the loud thanksgiving raise: Hallelujah!

O may we tread the sacred road that saints and holy martyrs trod:
Wage to the end the glorious strife, and win like them a crown of life. Hallelujah!
Amen.

Presentation Hymn By all your saints still striving (Hymn 231, v1)

By all your saints still striving, for all your saints at rest, your holy Name, O Jesus, for evermore be blessed.
You rose, our King victorious, that they might wear the crown and ever shine in splendor reflected from your throne.

Our "All the Company of Heaven" competition is off to a great start. Thank you for voting last Sunday. Here are the results (winners in bold). Teresa of Avila prevailed over Anthony of Padua in a close competition (11 to 9). Frances Xavier of Cabrini put up a spirited fight against Christopher but came up short (14 to 5). James of Jerusalem showed Stephen no mercy (13 to 6). Blessed Mary probably thought she was going to have no problem with Jude, but it was close (11 to 9). Thomas was no match for Joseph (12 to 7); neither was Margaret for Clare (14 to 5); and Cecilia barely put up a fight against Brigid (13 to 6). There was one absolute nail biter: Therese of Lisieux and Pancras had to go to overtime (9 to 9) where the "Little Flower" pulled off the victory. Round 2, The Great Eight, voting is November 3rd.
