Today's Readings—Twenty-fifth Sunday after Pentecost

The Old Testament Reading: Ruth 3:1-5; 4:13-17

Naomi her mother-in-law said to Ruth, "My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you. Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do." She said to her, "All that you tell me I will do."

So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the Lord made her conceive, and she bore a son. Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the Lord, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him." Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi." They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

The New Testament Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

The Holy Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

As Jesus taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

Welcome to Christ Church

We are happy to welcome you to our church and worship services. Here are some things that you may find helpful. If you would like to know more about us there are cards that you can fill out hanging in each pew. Please hand your completed card to an usher as you leave today. Please join us after the service in our Fellowship Hall (down the stairs near the front of the church and on your right at the bottom of the stairs) to get to know us better. The most readily accessible restroom is through the door near the front of the sanctuary. Once you go through that door turn right; the restroom is across from the elevator. Parking is available for free on the street on Sundays and in the M&T parking lot behind the church on the corner of Washington Street and Madison Ave.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: As we prepare to bring our gifts to the altar, let us raise our voices in prayer and praise, thanking God for the opportunity to walk in love together.

Intercessor: I ask your prayers for the Church, God's greatest gift to us. For all who worship and serve this day. For the wisdom and teaching of our bishops, priests, deacons, and laypeople. We pray for Fr Bryce, our rector, Kevin, our bishop, Sean, our presiding bishop, Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, The Church of South India (United) and St. Peter's, Tunkhannock. As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

I bid your prayers for our Nation and for all nations; for all refugees, for an end to hostilities, for a spirit of Goodwill. We pray for those who live in fear and danger, especially the people of Ukraine and the Middle East. As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

I ask your prayers for our neighbors, for the mission of our church and the ways we change the world with our gifts. We pray today for those celebrating this week: Elizabeth West, Connor Johnston and Linda Jones. As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

I invite your prayers for those who are sick, who are isolated, who are in despair. We pray for caregivers and healers who care for those we love. Please pray for those on our parish prayer list, and who we name now either silently or aloud... As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

I ask your prayers for the dead and the dying, and for those who mourn, remembering Betty Lou McLean and Patricia K.J. Mathews– Davis. As Christ loved us, We walk in love.

Celebrant: Hear the prayers of your people, O God, and inspire us with gratitude and abundance as we share our many gifts with You and the world You made. Amen.

Honoring Our Veterans

Veterans Day honors all who have served in the U.S. military. The federal holiday is observed on November 11th, the day World War I ended in 1918. A year later, President Woodrow Wilson celebrated what was originally known as Armistice Day for the first time even though it wasn't until 1938 that Congress recognized it as an official federal holiday. In 1954, the holiday's name was changed to Veterans Day, to honor the veterans of all wars the U.S. has fought. The Uniform Holiday Act of 1968 moved the holiday from November 11th to the "fourth Monday in October", a move made to ensure a long weekend for workers. But in 1975 President Gerald Ford returned the holiday to its original November date, due to the significance in marking the end of the war. Today, we take time to give thanks for and to honor all of those who have made the sacrifice of serving in our Armed Forces.

Celebrant: Let us pray:

Almighty God, we commend to your gracious care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces who have served and who serve still today. Defend them day by day with your heavenly grace; strengthen them in their trials and temptations; give them courage to face the perils which beset them; and grant them a sense of your abiding presence as we thank them for their service; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Celebrant: Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God

People: that we may help those working for the peace and welfare of all peoples.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you:

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray:

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Old Testament Reading: Ruth 3:1-5; 4:13-17 (full text on page 2 of this bulletin)

At the end of the reading

Reader: The Word of the Lord:

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 127 (The psalm is read responsively by whole verse)

Unless the Lord builds the house, their labor is in vain who build it.

Unless the Lord watches over the city,
in vain the watchman keeps his vigil.

It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late;
vain, too, to eat the bread of toil,
for he gives to his beloved sleep.

Children are a heritage from the Lord,
and the fruit of the womb is a gift.

Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the children of one's youth.

Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them!
he shall not be put to shame
when he contends with his enemies in the gate.

The Offertory Anthem So they gave their bodies Peter Aston

So they gave their bodies to the commonwealth, and received praise that will never die, and a home in the minds of men.

Their story lives on without visible symbol, woven into the stuff of other men's lives.

Presentation Hymn By all your saints still striving (Hymn 231, v1)

By all your saints still striving, for all your saints at rest, your holy Name, O Jesus, for evermore be blessed.

You rose, our King victorious, that they might wear the crown and ever shine in splendor reflected from your throne.

“We are taking our Walk of Love on the road! Please join us Thursday, Nov. 14th and Saturday, Nov. 23rd as we walk, contemplate and pray at the Penn State Berks Labyrinth Garden. This permanent garden is located on the PSU Berks campus, Janssen Conference Center Complex <https://berks.psu.edu/labyrinth-garden>. Parking is available. On Sunday, Nov 17th, Christ Church’s own labyrinth will be set up in the parish hall following services. These are excellent opportunities for meditation, centering and opening yourself to God’s light. Let’s all Walk in Love Around the Labyrinth together.”

Almost everyday, after playing Wordle, I play a few other New York Times games as well: The Mini Crossword, Strands and Connections. This Sunday at Christ Church, at 8am and 10am, we are going to be playing Connections. There are four groups of four words jumbled up on the Connections board. Our goal is to figure out what each group of four words have in common. The online bulletin has a blank board; your Sunday bulletin at church will have the sixteen words on the board! Come to church this Sunday ready to make some Connections!

Our Thursday morning Bible Study continues at 9am in the Library. Prior attendance is not required; please join us.

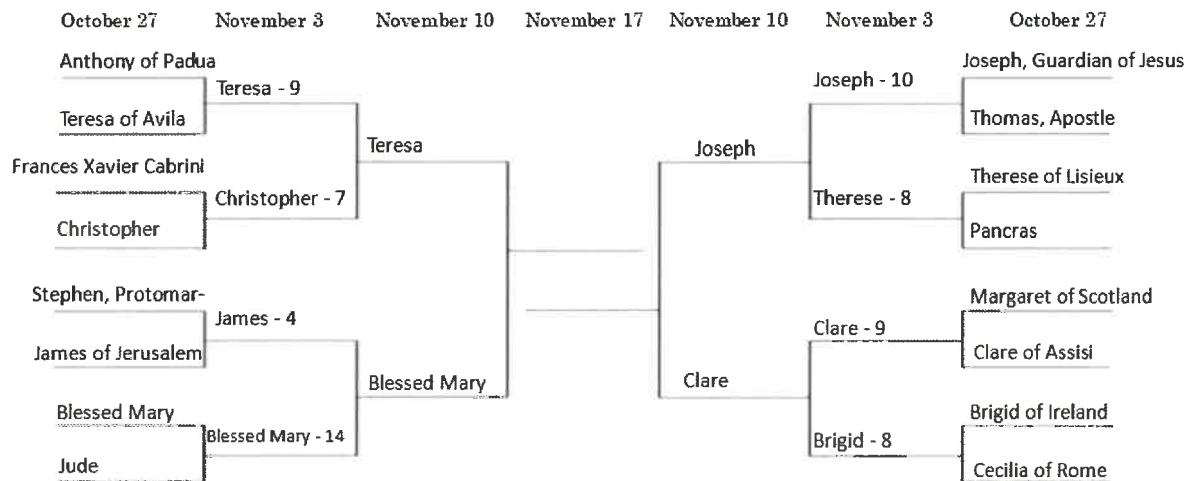

The Rummage Sale will be held on November 13 with all the Christmas goodies! Don't miss the bargains!

Our Annual Food Collection this year benefits the Veterans Coalition of Pennsylvania. Items needed are Breakfast cereals, Canned "hearty" soups (which include a protein, starch and vegetable), Pasta sauce and canned fruit/vegetables. On November 24th, we will collect your donated food items at the altar and bless them.

EYC (Episcopal Youth Community) Friday November 22nd, our Junior EYC (ages 6-12) will meet at 6pm at the church. If you have any questions about EYC please speak to Milah (milahallison@gmail.com).

Our Choir Room and Office have been receiving a lot of TLC over the past few months. Led by the efforts of Dail Richie, Alison Whalen, June Maier and Ruth Anne Bengston, there has been a lot of wonderful progress (something that we will celebrate and bless in the near future). Lots of file cabinets, bookshelves, blackboards etc. are now no longer needed in the Choir Room and Office. If you are in need of any such items, please do visit the choir room and have a look. What is there is FREE for the taking! please let either Chris Spohn or Ruth Anne know by November 10, if you can use any of these things.

This Sunday our Adult Forum will be another session of "What's Happening @ CCR?" We will meet at 9:05am in the Parlor, sharing all that we know about our upcoming works to the interior and exterior of Christ Church. We will also share our dream and progress so far of having a school/daycare at Christ Church. For anyone not able to make this session we will also prepare an informational handout that will be made available in paper and electronic formats.
