Today's Readings

The First Reading: Proverbs 3:1-6

My child, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments; for length of days and years of life and abundant welfare they will give you. Do not let loyalty and faithfulness forsake you; bind them round your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find favour and good repute in the sight of God and of people. Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

The Second Reading: 2 Timothy 3:14-17

As for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 9:9-13

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners."

Welcome to Christ Church

We are happy to welcome you to our church and worship services. Here are some things that you may find helpful. If you would like to know more about us there are cards that you can fill out hanging in each pew. Please hand your completed card to an usher as you leave today. Please join us after the service in our Fellowship Hall (down the stairs near the front of the church and on your right at the bottom of the stairs) to get to know us better. The most readily accessible restroom is through the door near the front of the sanctuary. Once you go through that door turn right; the restroom is across from the elevator. Parking is available for free on the street on Sundays and in the M&T parking lot behind the church on the corner of Washington Street and Madison Ave.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: Let us pray today that we will hear God's call in our lives and that, like Blessed Matthew, we will have the faith and courage to respond and live out our vocation:

Intercessor: In thanksgiving for your grace, revealed in Blessed Matthew, and for all that inspires us from his life, that following his good example, we may hear afresh your call to holiness of life. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For your holy church, that it may persevere in its witness to you and continue building up the communion of saints. We pray especially for Bryce, our rector, Kevin our bishop, Sean our presiding bishop, the Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan and St. Luke's, Lebanon. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

That we who are gathered here may receive grace to grow into the likeness of Christ: We pray especially for those celebrating birthdays this week: John Hyneman, Benjamin Frymoyer, Sally Wilcox, Bev Munsing and Ellie Marie Weyandt. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

That the leaders of this world may strive for justice and peace; and honor the common good. Be with those living in fear and danger, especially the people of Ukraine and the Holy Land. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

That all who are poor, homeless, or hungry may find refuge in you; and that the sick and the suffering may be relieved from affliction, especially those on the prayer list printed in our bulletin and any we name now... God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

In communion with Blessed Matthew and all the saints, let us commend the world to the mercy and protection of God, that, with all the saints in ages past, we and all the departed may find a dwelling place in the habitations of your majesty and glory, remembering Harold, Mary and Dan Lambert, Frank, Dorothy and Kay Laedlein, Anna Bard Frame, Emily Louis Bard, Patricia K.J. Mathews-Davis and Charles Davis God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Almighty God, by your Holy Spirit you have made us one with your saints in heaven and on earth: grant that in our earthly pilgrimage we may ever be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Christ Church Mission

We are grounded in the values of love, service and faithful stewardship. Firmly rooted in compassionate collaboration, we welcome partnerships that nurture our neighbors and address pressing issues in our community. We endeavor to be a cornerstone for the city of Reading, enabling all that come through our doors to experience the dignity, purpose and opportunities that God desires for everyone.

If Eucharistic visitors are being sent forth today to take the sacrament to people at home, the following prayer is said after Communion:

Celebrant: In the name of God, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

All: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup. Amen.
