Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity (said together)

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie

Celebrant: Lord have mercy

People: Christ have mercy

Celebrant: Lord have mercy

Celebrant: The Lord be with you:

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading: Genesis 22:1-14

God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you." So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son

Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you." Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. Isaac said to his father Abraham, "Father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" Abraham said, "God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." So the two of them walked on together. When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the Lord called to him from heaven, and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." He said, "Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me." And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place "The Lord will provide"; as it is said to this day, "On the mount of the Lord it shall be provided."

At the end of the reading

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm 13 (The Psalm is read responsively by whole verse)

How long, O Lord? will you forget me for ever?
how long will you hide your face from me?

How long shall I have perplexity in my mind,
and grief in my heart, day after day?
how long shall my enemy triumph over me?

Look upon me and answer me, O Lord my God;
give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;

Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him,"
and my foes rejoice that I have fallen.

But I put my trust in your mercy;
my heart is joyful because of your saving help.

I will sing to the Lord, for he has dealt with me richly;
I will praise the Name of the Lord Most High.

The Second Reading: Romans 6:12-23

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

At the end of the reading

Reader: The Word of the Lord:

People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 10:40-42

Before the reading

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple-- truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: Let us pray to God, that he will bring to fruition all that he desires for his creation, saying, in your mercy, hear us.

Intercessor: You have created the universe by your eternal Word, and have blessed humankind in making us stewards of the earth. We pray for your world, that we may share and conserve its resources, and live in reverence for the creation and in harmony with one another. We especially pray for those celebrating this week: Charlotte Hoare, Jonathan Day, Nancy Shelly, June and Courtney Tull and James and Victoria Wilson. Lord of creation, in your mercy, hear us.

You have given the human race a rich land, a land of streams and springs, wheat and barley, vines and oil and honey. We have made by sin a world of suffering and sorrow. We pray for those who bear the weight of affliction, that they may come to share the life of wholeness and plenty including those on our prayer list and any we name now... We also pray for everyone living in places where wars are being fought and lives are being lost. Lord of creation, in your mercy, hear us.

In Christ you call us to a new way of life, loving our neighbors before ourselves. Help us to treat with care and respect the world as it is, as we live in hope and anticipation of the world as it will be when your kingdom comes and your will is done. We pray for Bryce, our rector, Audrey, our bishop, Kevin, our assistant bishop, Sean, our presiding bishop, Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury, The Anglican Church of Southern Africa and the churches and ministries of the Diocese of the Susquehanna. May your church be a place of hope and a source of dignity for all. Lord of creation, in your mercy, hear us.

We thank you for those, living and departed, who have shown a true respect for your creation, remembering Henry Feick and Leroy Hartman. Help us to follow in their footsteps, until, with them, we see you face to face, where all is made new in Christ our Lord. Lord of creation, in your mercy, hear us.

Celebrant: Merciful Father,

All: accept these prayers for the sake of your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Kevin Hackett

The musical score is written for two systems. Each system consists of a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/2. The lyrics are: 'Lord, have mer - cy.' for the first system and 'Christ, have mer - cy. Lord, have mer - cy.' for the second system. The piano accompaniment features chords and moving lines that support the vocal melody.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

A Message from Father Bryce

It is with sorrow but also thanksgiving that I announce Milah Smith's resignation as our Director of Children's and Youth Ministries at Christ Church.

For the past six years Milah has given her heart and soul to ensuring that our children and youth have been loved and given a firm foundation for the rest of their lives. She will continue to serve through our Summer VBS program in mid-July.

We want to take time after our 10am service on August 23rd to celebrate Milah's time of ministry at Christ Church. We will have a celebratory lunch at 11am. If you would like to contribute to Milah's gift which will be given on that Sunday please submit to our office clearly marked "Milah's Gift." I thank Milah for all that she has given our community as our Director of Children and Youth. I look forward to continuing to worship with her for many years to come.

We are partnering with the Literacy Council of Reading-Berks and Trinity Lutheran to host informal conversations on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 AM to 11:30 AM at Christ Church. These events started on Thursday, June 25 and will end on Thursday, July 9. Just like conversational dinners, these events provide our neighbors with a friendly, judgment-free place to practice English skills while building relationships. These conversations are being facilitated by Edvard Philipson, a Literacy Council instructor. If you would like to volunteer to be a part of these conversations please contact chrisspohn@rdgchristchurch.org. The remaining conversation dates are: Tuesday, June 30; Thursday, July 2; Tuesday, July 7, and Thursday, July 9.
