People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, who revealed the resurrection of your Son to Joanna, Mary, and Salome as they faithfully came bearing myrrh to his tomb: Grant that we too may perceive the presence of the risen Lord in the midst of pain and fear, and go forth proclaiming his resurrection; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading: Job 2:11-13

When Job's three friends heard of all these troubles that had come upon him, each of them set out from his home—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They met together to go and console and comfort him. When they saw him from a distance, they did not recognize him, and they raised their voices and wept aloud; they tore their robes and threw dust in the air upon their heads. They sat with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great.

At the end of the reading

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm 50

The Lord, the God of gods, has spoken;
he has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty,
God reveals himself in glory.

Our God will come and will not keep silence;
before him there is a consuming flame,
and round about him a raging storm.

He calls the heavens and the earth from above to witness the judgment of his people.

"Gather before me my loyal followers,
those who have made a covenant with me
and sealed it with sacrifice."

Let the heavens declare the rightness of his cause;
for God himself is judge.

The Second Reading: Acts 2:29–36

Peter said, "Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, 'He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.' This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses. Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you both see and hear. For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool."' Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

At the end of the reading

Reader: The Word of the Lord:

People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel: Mark 16: 1-8

Before the reading

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you." So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: Let us pray today that we will hear God's call in our lives and that, like Blessed Joanna, Blessed Mary and Blessed Salome, we will have the faith and courage to respond and live out our vocation:

Intercessor: In thanksgiving for your grace, revealed in these blessed women, and for all that inspires us from their lives, that following their good example, we may hear afresh your call to holiness of life: God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

For your holy church, that it may persevere in its witness to you and continue building up the communion of saints. We pray especially for Bryce, our rector, Audrey, our bishop, Kevin, our assistant bishop, Sean, our presiding bishop, Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury, The Church of the Province of Uganda, and the churches and ministries of the Diocese of the Susquehanna. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

That we who are gathered here may receive grace to grow into the likeness of Christ: We pray especially for those celebrating this week: David Wheat, Kate Fanning and Dane and Chiyo Miller. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

That the leaders of this world may strive for justice and peace; and honor the common good. Be with those living in fear and danger, especially those living in places of war and all the innocent lives that are taken. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

That all who are poor, homeless, or hungry may find refuge in you; and that the sick and the suffering may be relieved from affliction, especially for those on the prayer list printed in the bulletin and any we name now... God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

In communion with Blessed Joanna, Blessed Mary, Blessed Salome and all the saints, let us commend the world to the mercy and protection of God, that, with all the saints in ages past, we and all the departed may find a dwelling place in the habitations of your majesty and glory, remembering Clara, Jack and Frank Donnelly and Thelma and Chuck Rowles. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Almighty God, by your Holy Spirit you have made us one with your saints in heaven and on earth: grant that in our earthly pilgrimage we may ever be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin 360

The Peace 360

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Blessing of the Mary's Shelter Backpacks

All: Lord, whose Son came to serve and not to be served, who called and blessed the little children and who told us that, to enter the kingdom of God, we must be child like; bless these backpacks and the children who will use them, bless their families, their teachers and their schools; may these bags be a blessing to them and this coming year be a time of growth, strength and support; by the humble strength of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for the Preparation of the Table

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation:
through your goodness we have this bread to set before you,
which earth has given and human hands have made.
It will become for us the bread of life.
All Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation:
through your goodness we have this wine to set before you,

IN the city. WITH our neighbors. FOR everyone.

We are grounded in the values of love, service and faithful stewardship. Firmly rooted in compassionate collaboration, we welcome partnerships that nurture our neighbors and address pressing issues in our community. We endeavor to be a cornerstone for the city of Reading, enabling all that come through our doors to experience the dignity, purpose and opportunities that God desires for everyone.

Christ Church and Habitat for Humanity

We have a long history of being part of the well-being of the people of Reading. From the funding of Episcopal House to the founding of Opportunity House, Christ Church has always been willing to make sacrifices to help others who are in need. Earlier this year Fr Bryce and Rick Wolf (Treasurer) were approached by Habitat for Humanity regarding the funding of Berks County's Whole Home Repair Program. Habitat had been running this program in the past but the government funds used to administer it had run out. As a result of this lack of funding Habitat began looking to community partners for funding to make sure that the program could continue to benefit the people of Berks County. At our April Vestry meeting a proposal was presented that we help fund the Whole Home Repair Program for one year at $100,000. This proposal was first considered by both Finance and Endowment Committees. Our vestry voted unanimously to approve this proposal, utilizing funds from our endowment to make four donations of $25,000 each over the next year to Habitat to fund this vital program. We look forward to sharing more details of this program as it gets off the ground. Please keep your eye on local news, our bulletin and our enews for updates throughout this coming year.

The Whole-Home Repairs Program is designed to assist low-income families who own and occupy an attached or detached single-family home in need of a repair or replacement of a major system or items of their house. This assistance to homeowners is provided as a forgivable loan and must be used for an item or items that threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the household. The house must be located in Berks County.

Alice Training
(Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacuate)

The Security Task Force will be holding another ALICE training session at the Church at 8:00AM on Saturday August 22. All congregants are welcome and encouraged to attend. The training session, which will be conducted by Chris Spohn and Ellen Sunderman, our own trained ALICE instructors, will last for approximately 4 hours and will include classroom instruction as well as various mock exercises involving the types of threats we might possibly encounter in the event that an intruder entered the Church. Please use the following link if you wish to register for this training: <https://forms.gle/eDnMcVZmRdnuvjfR8>
Participation in the mock exercises is strictly voluntary.
