The Liturgy of the Word

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity (said together)

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie

Celebrant: Lord have mercy

People: Christ have mercy

Celebrant: Lord have mercy

Celebrant: The Lord be with you:

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated

The First Reading : Exodus 20:1-4, 7-9, 12-20

Then God spoke all these words: I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. For six days you shall labour and do all your work. Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor. When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance, and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die." Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid; for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin."

At the end of the reading

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm 19

The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the firmament shows his handiwork.

One day tells its tale to another,
and one night imparts knowledge to another.

Although they have no words or language,
and their voices are not heard,

Their sound has gone out into all lands,
and their message to the ends of the world.

In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun;
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.

It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens
and runs about to the end of it again;
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.

The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul;
the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart; the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever;
the judgments of the Lord are true
and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold,
more than much fine gold,
sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

By them also is your servant enlightened,
and in keeping them there is great reward.

Who can tell how often he offends?
cleanse me from my secret faults.

Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get dominion over me; then shall I be whole and sound,
and innocent of a great offense.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,
O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

The Second Reading: Philippians 3:4b-14

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

At the end of the reading

Reader: The Word of the Lord:

People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 21:33-46

Before the reading

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.' So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time." Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes'? Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls." When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

The Prayers of the People

Celebrant: Lord of heaven and earth, you tell us that we should always be seeking your guidance, hear us today as we pray, saying, Lord have mercy.

Intercessor: For the Church of Christ and for the whole people of God, especially for Bryce, our rector, Audrey, our bishop, Kevin, our assistant bishop, Sean, our presiding bishop, Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury, Igreja Episcopal Anglicana do Brasil and the churches and ministries of the Diocese of the Susquehanna. Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the peace that comes from God alone, for the unity of all peoples, and for our salvation; defend and guard all of those living in fear and danger, especially those living in places of war, conflict and natural disaster; let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, for the sick and suffering, for those on our prayer list printed in the bulletin and anyone that we name now... let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the dying, for those who mourn: remembering, Berta Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lerch and Raymond Keller; for the faithful whom we entrust to the Lord in hope, as we look forward to the day when we share the fullness of the resurrection, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Rejoicing in the communion of the saints living and departed, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to God. We give thanks with those celebrating this week: Barbara Batz, Kathleen Brantman, Mickey Getty, Bruce McLean, Chiyo Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rowles and Marcia and Milah Smith; let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant: Into your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Don't Miss These Upcoming Events

On October 11th The Revd Ross Tortora will be with us again! Fr Ross was with us in 2023 when he spoke to us about the amazing work of Homeboy Industries and Fr Greg Boyle. This time he will preach at our 8AM and 10AM services and lead us in a lively discussion of some of his favorite scenes from The Chosen.

October 18th marks the kickoff of our fourth All The Company of Heaven competition. Start studying up on your favorite saints so you can nominate them on this special Sunday in our year.

On Sunday October 25th we will be blessing the Halloween Costumes during our 10AM service. Why not invite a friend so they can have their Halloween blessed and receive some early treats too?

Nature Meets Creativity

Sunday, October 4, 2026
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

Trinity Lutheran Church
527 Washington Street, Reading, PA (map)

We are thrilled to announce that the Red Creek Wildlife Center will be joining us for a captivating wildlife presentation as part of this year's Fall Festival of the Arts.

Known for their incredible work in wildlife rehabilitation and education, Red Creek will bring the wonders of the natural world right to our festival grounds. It's a unique opportunity to see these majestic creatures up close and learn about the vital role they play in our local ecosystem.

We're currently in the lab (or the nest!) cooking up some special children's activities to keep the little ones engaged. While we're still finalizing the details, you can expect plenty of hands-on fun to spark a lifelong love for nature.

John Painter Organ Concert

Friday, October 9, 2026
7:00 PM - 9:00 PM

Christ Episcopal Church
435 Court Street, Reading, PA (map)

John Painter's path to the organ bench at Christ Episcopal Church is anything but ordinary. A Schuylkill Valley High School graduate who went on to earn degrees from Bard College and the Manhattan School of Music, Painter has served congregations across Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey, performed recitals in the United States and France, and even spent six years teaching in Morocco — all while honing one of the most deeply trained musical minds in the region.

Now settled back in Reading, Painter brings that extraordinary breadth of experience to the Fall Festival of the Arts with an organ recital in the sanctuary of Christ Church. Expect an evening of masterful playing, featuring works from the French repertoire and J.S. Bach — performed on what Painter himself calls one of the finest instruments he has ever played.
